RV News 2026 RV OF THE YEAR TRAVEL TRAILER TOY HAULER Gulf Stream Coach Ameri-Lite 15TH

Ameri-Lite 15TH

When we think about toy haulers, we typically envision dual- and triple-axle, 45-foot RVs hauling the latest Polaris RZR Side by Side utility vehicle to wide-open spaces in the West. We were taken by Gulf Stream Coach's take on a small toy hauler, the Ameri-Lite 15TH.

The 16-foot, 2-inch single-axle toy hauler was 8 feet wide and weighed 2,850 pounds dry. The toy hauler had a 1,130-pound carrying capacity, keeping the total GVWR under 4,000 pounds.

We understand that this 15TH was not a typical toy hauler. We liked that the Ameri-Lite 15TH worked for consumers who wanted to haul gear such as bicycles, kayaks, fishing or ski poles. The 15TH's GVWR enabled towing by trucks, as well as SUVs and crossover vehicles.

We were impressed that, despite being as light as the 15TH was, the RV was not simply an empty vessel to carry gear. The toy hauler had sleeping capacity for four, with a 54-inch by 74-inch bed that folds against the wall and an optional fold-out side tent. Neither sleeping space impeded space to haul gear. We also liked that the trailer could serve as a home base, with designers including a galley and wet bath in such a small space.

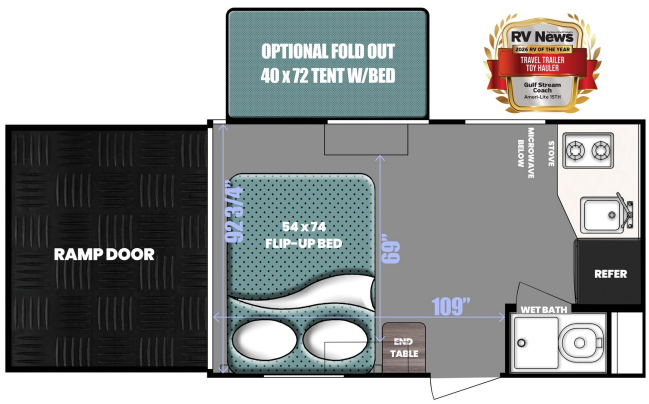

We believe Gulf Stream Coach's Ameri-Lite 15TH proved that a smaller toy hauler did not mean skimping on consumers' options. Because the concept was executed so well, we agreed that the toy hauler was clearly award-worthy. RVN
